One Minute Meditations

St. Camillus de Lellis

Born in sixteenth-century Italy, St. Camillus aimed for holiness despite serious setbacks. He had a gambling addiction and became known for being argumentative and contentious. After losing his possessions and even his own shirt through gambling, he was hired by some compassionate Franciscans, but later transferred to a Capuchin order. After being ordained a priest, he and some companions founded the order of the Camellians, who cared for the grievously sick, prisoners, and the plague victims.

Keep the parish lights on

No matter where you go this summer, don't forget your parish back home. Your parish depends upon your help to pay the bills even when you're not home.

"See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him" (1 John 3:1).

What are the secrets of stewardship?

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace" (1 Peter 4:10). Everything we have and all that we are is given to us by God because he loves us and trusts us to be good stewards of his gifts of love.

A good steward receives God's gifts gratefully, cherishes them, shares them, and returns them to God with interest.

Stewardship flows from love.

The key is to be continually aware of what God has given us and to be deeply grateful. Good stewards know that they didn't earn their talents or resources and understand that they come from a Father who asks only for true love in return.

Giving feels good. Sharing God's gifts with those in need, whether it is our time, talents, or treasure, feels great. And, it's what Jesus asked us to do.

Stewards are instruments.

Stewardship is actually God's love flowing through us and pouring out through us. The good steward joins in God's own generous nature by acting as God's hands on Earth.

God's purpose is the point.

When we waste our talents, dawdle in pointless pursuits, or squander our resources, we put our own desires first ahead of God's will. Good stewards are God-centered rather than self-centered.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics call Rome "home?"

In Matthew 16, Jesus named Peter "the Rock" upon which Jesus would build his Church (Matthew 16:17-18). After the Ascension, St. Peter traveled to Rome for the Gospel, and became the bishop of the Christian community there. He was martyred and buried in Rome, and his successors became the next popes.

Historically, the church in Rome proved to be a source of unity, strength, and faithfulness in adversity.

Today, Catholics everywhere call Rome, the resting place of St. Peter, "home."

Celebrate your mistakes

Do you dread making mistakes and beat yourself up when you do? Yet, mistakes are outcomes we didn't expect and can lead to growth.

Step 1 – admit your mistake. You can only learn from a mistake if you admit you made one. As soon as we start blaming others, we miss out on any possible lessons.

Step 2 - enlist help. Talking to someone else about what happened gives you the benefit of your friend's experience. He or she may have made a similar mistake or know of a way to deal with it. Plus, describing the event helps you to think it through and perhaps see opportunities you didn't know were there.

Step 3 – decide for change. Ask, "What will I do better next time?" Real growth and change happen when you see room for improvement. Then commit to making the necessary changes to avoid the mistake in the future.

Making mistakes doesn't make you a mistake. Remember, God is the only one you know who doesn't make them.

from Scripture

Luke 11:1-13, the perfect prayer

This passage is for anyone who wants to deepen prayer. Here, Jesus teaches his disciples to pray the Our Father. It's actually four prayers in one.

First, it's a prayer of praise and thanksgiving to God. Second, it is a prayer of petition in which we ask God to provide what we need. Third, it is a prayer asking for forgiveness and the strength to be forgiving.

Lastly, it is a prayer of acknowledgement of God's providence. It makes us admit that God knows and wants what is best for us. In choosing to follow God's will, even when it conflicts with our own, we place our trust in him.

God always answers prayers - usually it's "Yes," "No," or "Wait...I have something better." Also, he wants to know we're committed to what we are requesting. Is it a real need or just a momentary thought?

Like the neighbor in this Gospel reading, Jesus encourages us to be persistent and continue to ask for God's help, seek his will, and be open to his grace in our lives.

Feasts & Celebrations

July 5 - St. Elizabeth of Portugal (1336). The daughter of King Peter III of Aragon, she married King Denis of Portugal, whose infidelity caused her much suffering. He later repented and died a holy death. She became known as "the Peacemaker" for resolving political conflicts. After her husband's death, she became a Franciscan tertiary and lived with the Poor Clares.

July 26 – Saints Joachim and Anne (1st century). Little is known about Jesus' grandparents, but we know Mary was raised in a devout home. Her unshakeable faith, her devotion to the laws of her religion, and her steadiness in crises indicate the values with which she was raised.

July 29 – St. Martha (1st century). In Luke's Gospel, St. Martha served Jesus dinner, while her sister Mary sat at his feet and listened. At Lazarus's death, she told Jesus, "I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God" (John 11:27).

Because of her faith, Lazarus was brought back to life.

Q & A Who can baptize people into the Catholic Church?

A member of the clergy is the ordinary minister of Baptism – a bishop, priest, or deacon. In emergencies, if there isn't a priest present, anyone can baptize, even someone who isn't baptized. In the case of an adult, the person to be baptized must have expressed at some point the desire to become a Catholic. The person baptizing must intend to baptize the person Catholic, and must use water and the words, "I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

"The Church finds the reason for this possibility in the universal saving will of God" (Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), #1256). The fact that anyone can baptize anyone desiring to become part of the Church is a sign of God's love for us. It speaks of God's infinitely great desire to welcome everyone and anyone into his family. Note: Baptism is received only once. If someone is already a baptized Christian but not Catholic, no second Baptism needed.

NEW EVANGELIZATION

Ponderful Moment®

*Take a little time to ponder.
This moment can be a source of discussion in your family, your Bible Study Group, or Religious Education Class.*

LOVE THE LORD WITH ALL YOUR HEART

Most of us have the desire to help others who are less fortunate than ourselves. Often, there is a call from the pulpit to feed the hungry and tend to the poor. This is a legitimate call. Christ Himself commands us in the Gospel to love our neighbor, feed, clothe, and visit those in need.

However, this is not the only teaching of Christ. Actually the very first command of Christ is to love the Lord your God with all of your heart, soul, mind, and strength. This is ordered above loving thy neighbor by God Himself.

So, how do we show God's love in everyday life? Very simply, we make time to be with Him. Jesus desires our unity with Him in daily prayer and in worship at Holy Mass. He asks us to unite with Him in His suffering through fasting and the daily offering of our pains and self-denials. It also pleases Jesus immensely when we take time to honor His mother, Mary.

We are Catholic. The spiritual command to love the Lord your God is ordered first for a reason. We need the Holy Spirit to be present in us in order to share God's love with others and to unite all of our actions of God the Father. As Catholics, we show God our love most powerfully by our reverent assistance at Holy Mass. Let's renew, each day, our commitment to follow God's first Commandment.

Ponder: In what other ways can we show God our unconditional love and commitment?

Reflect: Mark 12:30-31

Pray: Heavenly Father, help me to worship Your holy name every day.
